9	describe what those changes are, please?	9	MS. LOWRY: Do you have any questions for
10	A. Some of the changes are that the area of	10
11	social worker supervisors are going to be looking at	11
12	more cases than the regional directors are also	12
13	going to be looking at more case trying to determine	13

17	problem is.	17
18	Q. Okay. Anything else?	18
19	A. I'm sure there's a lot of other things. I	19
20	just can't you know, we've got a lot of other	20
21	plans to procedures that we're going to put in	21
22	place, but the the biggest issue is that our	22
23	supervisors are going to have a more hands-on	23
24	approach, and our regional directors. And then each	24
25	region based on their specific situations are going	25

And if you see a problem and then you correct the problem, then, you know, that's — that's what we need to be doing to initiate best practices and ensure that every decision we make a decision is going to be in the best interest of that child. Q. Uh-huh. And that's the case even if you don't have the resources to provide what's in the best interest of the child? A. We will do the very best we can with what we have to do with, and we use the most available and the most appropriate resource that we have. Q. Okay. Are all of these changes which you've described codified or compiled in any particular place? A. Most of them are listed in the — in the PIP, the Program Improvement Plan. MS. LOWRY: Okay. We are at this time finished with our questions for this session.
